REFLEXIÓN – REFLECTION

El Miércoles de Ceniza abre la Cuaresma, una temporada de ayuno y oración. El Miércoles de Ceniza tiene lugar 46 días antes del Domingo de Resurrección, el Miércoles de Ceniza proviene de la antigua tradición judía de penitencia y ayuno. La práctica incluye el uso de cenizas en la cabeza. Las cenizas simbolizan el polvo del que Dios nos hizo. Cuando el sacerdote aplica las cenizas en la frente de una persona, pronuncia las palabras: "Recuerda que eres polvo, y al polvo volverás". Alternativamente, el sacerdote puede pronunciar las palabras: "Arrepiéntanse y crean en el Evangelio". Las cenizas también simbolizan el dolor, en este caso, el dolor por haber pecado y haber causado división de Dios.

No es necesario que una persona use las cenizas durante el resto del día y pueden lavarse después de la Misa. Sin embargo, muchas personas guardan las cenizas como recordatorio hasta la noche.

Este año el Miércoles de Ceniza coincide con el día de San Valentín, pero es importante recordar el carácter penitencial de este día. Estamos llamados a reflexionar sobre la misericordia de Dios y nuestras deficiencias mediante la oración y el ayuno.

Ash Wednesday opens Lent, a season of fasting and prayer. Ash Wednesday takes place 46 days before Easter Sunday, Ash Wednesday comes from the ancient Jewish tradition of penance and fasting. The practice includes the wearing of ashes on the head. The ashes symbolize the dust from which God made us. As the priest applies the ashes to a person's forehead, he speaks the words: "Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return." Alternatively, the priest may speak the words, "Repent and believe in the Gospel." Ashes also symbolize grief, in this case, grief that we have sinned and caused division from God.

It is not required that a person wear the ashes for the rest of the day, and they may be washed off after Mass. However, many people keep the ashes as a reminder until the evening.

This year Ash Wednesday happen to fall on the same day of Valentines, but it is important to remember the penitential nature of this day. We are called to reflect on God's mercy and our shortcomings by prayer and fasting.
